

MERCY SEAT

“Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.” (Hebrews 4:16)

In need of mercy, my sister wept,
So I asked her to church, not sure she'd accept.

But accept she did, so we made a date.
I picked her up so she wouldn't be late.

Arthritic knees, too stiff to kneel,
Still she crept within the veil,

And plopped right down on the altar bench
Between two cherubim with wings outstretched.

“Set her free, set her free from the darkness of sin!
Spirit of Light, Lord Jesus, come in!”

In Jesus came, and out Satan went.
Her time at the altar had been well spent.
