

The Sackcloth Times

A Publication of Faith On The Earth

December 2009

DRUNKENNESS OF THE WORLD

5Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

10The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD, 15Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

- Joel 1:5-15

2And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4And I heard another voice from heaven, saying,

Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

- Revelation 18:2-5

The whole world proves once again that it continues to lie in wickedness, as the "holiday season" officially kicks off with the much-awaited day by retailers, "Black Friday." The wrath of God is at the door, but the oblivious must continue to heap up material possessions, and to party and play.

Our U.S. economy is strained to the point there is no breath left in it. We have a Communist, a walking, talking curse upon the land, residing in the White House, who is hell-bent on re-bankrupting a country that is already bankrupt as quickly as he can. The world economy is in such disarray that world leaders are calling for a united currency to kind of even everything out. But all that will do is remove every country's individual sovereignty and turn everyone into a slave to the few, the mighty, the diabolical in power.

These changes are fast approaching, and if we blink, we might miss their formation. The devil, the subtle creature that he is, has been working his plan for centuries to unite the world powers in a modern Tower of Babel. But we now stand on the brink, as the liberals at the helm of the once-free world are legislating this modern Tower of Babel, the one-world government where we're all supposed to forget our differences and get along, into existence. They do it regardless of anyone's voice against it. And most of the drunken world sleeps while it happens.

In every land, people are intoxicated with everyday life and cares of the world, either survival or personal gain. The true God Almighty is not a thought. The warnings of God against giving kings too much power are not heard. The oblivious go about their lives as Jesus said they would in these end times, just before destruction comes upon them all.

The Bible tells us this world system, or Babylon, is going to fall in one hour. Destruction will come upon the whole world for its turning from God. We are seeing the cataclysmic events that are leading up to this final destruction. God will not tolerate the sin of man much longer.

Mankind has dabbled in every kind of religion and has managed to combine all faiths into one, which the Bible calls the great Whore of Babylon. It is a peace-love-freedom-I'm-OK-You're-OK New Age Oprah-type psychobabble. The only faith not taking part in the dealings of Babylon, or becoming intoxicated with its enticements, or falling prey to the deception of the Whore, is true Christianity.

There is only one Way to God, and that Way is Jesus Christ. Babylon tells us there are many ways to find truth. The Bible tells us Babylon is due for destruction.

It is too late for this world system. Babylon is going to be judged. But it is not too late for individuals who choose to repent and turn their lives over to Jesus. The hours are short, the devil is running rampant, the world powers are converging against the good of the people, and Jesus is standing at the door and knocking. Who will let Him in?

THE MOLECH OF THE HEALTH SCARE BILL

Both versions of the health scare bill that will take the freedom away from every person in the United States to choose their own health plan and insurer also take away the freedom to choose not to pay for abortions. Child sacrifice is going to become a mandate under either Reid's or Pelosi's plan, unless by a miracle God steps in and removes the threat of this whole seemingly inevitable fiasco.

One dollar per month will be taken from the insurance premium of every American slave forced to take part in either of these government-run plans and put into an allotted treasury that will provide abortions so that promiscuous men and women can play and not have to pay. Christians and others with consciences will have no choice but to fund this evil sacrifice of children to the god of selfishness.

The worship of a god of the Ammonites, Molech, required children to be burnt alive as a sacrifice. We have been doing nothing less than this by allowing doctors to mutilate and kill what (who) would otherwise become perfectly healthy babies born alive.

This "provision" is unconstitutional (anti-freedom of religion), and it is demonic at its root, but is also a curse upon us. God is saying basically, "You wanted your abortion - you didn't do away with this evil practice - well, here is the consequence."

The sad thing is, Christians and those with consciences against abortion, those who have fought against abortion, have lost this battle to the heathen. God is giving the majority what they wanted. The good thing is, only for a short time will this go on.

Wrath upon this country, and upon the world as a whole, has been seen in small doses, and it is going to escalate rapidly as we have never before seen.

In Mark 9:42, we see Jesus taking a child in his arms and saying, "And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea."

This can be read as a warning to those who harm either Christians, who are God's children, or innocent young children. There is a pretty harsh penalty for causing an innocent child harm or death. For any who see abortion - the taking of the life of a child - as a light thing, or a political issue regarding "choice," you may want to rethink your stand and repent before God before it is too late.

These are grave days for the United States.

GLOBAL WARMING-GATE

Just in time for the world leaders' conference scheduled for December 9 in Copenhagen on "global warming," emails of climate change researchers at the University of East Anglia's Climate Research Unit have surfaced that tell a very different story about the climate than what they would have us believe. Will it make any difference however? The mad scientists and quacks have an agenda, and with the White House behind them, they will continue full steam ahead.

Fox News reported on November 20, "Hackers broke into the servers at a prominent British climate research center and leaked years worth of e-mail messages onto the Web, including one with a mysterious reference to a plan to 'hide the decline' in data about temperatures."

As James Delingpole of the London Telegraph writes, these emails suggest "conspiracy, collusion in exaggerating warming data, possibly illegal destruction of embarrassing information, organized resistance to disclosure, manipulation of data, private admissions of flaws in their public claims and much more."

Here are just a few excerpts of the emails that were leaked:

"I've just completed Mike's Nature trick of adding in the real temps to each series for the last 20 years (i.e. from 1981 onwards) and from 1961 for Keith's to hide the decline."

"The fact is that we can't account for the lack of warming at the moment and it is a travesty that we can't. The CERES data published in the August BAMS 09 supplement on 2008 shows there should be even more warming: but the data are surely wrong. Our observing system is inadequate."

"Can you delete any emails you may have had with Keith re AR4? Keith will do likewise...Can you also email Gene and get him to do the same? I don't have his new email address. We will be getting Caspar to do likewise."

“Next time I see Pat Michaels [global warming skeptic] at a scientific meeting, I’ll be tempted to beat the crap out of him. Very tempted.”

Delingpole explains this next excerpt “Attempts to disguise the inconvenient truth of the Medieval Warm Period (MWP)”:

“...Phil and I have recently submitted a paper using about a dozen NH records that fit this category, and many of which are available nearly 2K back—I think that trying to adopt a timeframe of 2K, rather than the usual 1K, addresses a good earlier point that Peck made w/ regard to the memo, that it would be nice to try to ‘contain’ the putative ‘MWP,’ even if we don’t yet have a hemispheric mean reconstruction available that far back...”

As interesting as it is that these are surfacing now, we know that the media will stop this story from growing any further. The truth is out. They are changing the numbers to make it look like the planet is heating up at a rapid rate, but the real numbers have shown that the planet is actually on a temperature decline. The deception is big. The lies have the attention of the whole world, and the globalists are not about to let that attention slip away.

LORD CHRISTOPHER MONCKTON ON THE COPENHAGEN TREATY

Lord Christopher Monckton, a former science advisor to Margaret Thatcher, sued to keep Al Gore’s An Inconvenient Truth out of British classrooms - and won. Gore had to correct 9 inaccuracies before the video would be allowed.

Now Monckton has made a statement regarding the Copenhagen Treaty. He has read the entire document and says that it is just a front for the implementation of a one-world government. Leaders from around the world, including Barack Obama, will be present at the 2009 United Nations Climate Change Conference scheduled for December 9 in Copenhagen to sign this treaty which is supposedly to stop the world from falling apart due to “global warming.”

The following is from a speech Monckton made on October 14 at Bethel University in Saint Paul:

“At Copenhagen, this December, weeks away, a treaty will be signed. Your president will sign it. Most of the third world countries will sign it, because they think they’re going to get money out of it. Most of the left-wing regime from the European Union will rubber stamp it. Virtually nobody won’t sign it.

“I read that treaty. And what it says is this, that a world government is going to be created. The word ‘government’ actually appears as the first of three purposes of the new entity. The second purpose is the transfer of wealth from the countries of the West to third world countries, in satisfaction of what is called, coyly, ‘climate debt’ – because we’ve been burning CO2 and they haven’t. We’ve been screwing up the climate and they haven’t. And the third purpose of this new entity, this government, is enforcement.

“How many of you think that the word ‘election’ or ‘democracy’ or ‘vote’ or ‘ballot’ occurs anywhere in the 200 pages of that treaty? Quite right, it doesn’t appear once. So, at last, the communists who piled out of the Berlin Wall and into the environmental movement, who took over Greenpeace so that my friends who funded it left within a year, because [the communists] captured it...Now the apotheosis is at hand. They are about to impose a communist world government on the world. You have a president who has very strong sympathies with that point of view. He’s going to sign it. He’ll sign anything. He’s a Nobel Peace Prize winner; of course he’ll sign it.

“And the trouble is this; if that treaty is signed, if your Constitution says that it takes precedence over your Constitution, and you can’t resign from that treaty unless you get agreement from all the other state parties – and because you’ll be the biggest paying country, they’re not going to let you out of it.

“So, thank you, America. You were the beacon of freedom to the world. It is a privilege merely to stand on this soil of freedom while it is still free. But, in the next few weeks, unless you stop it, your president will sign your freedom, your democracy, and your humanity away forever. And neither you nor any subsequent government you may elect will have any power whatsoever to take it back. That is how serious it is. I’ve read the treaty. I’ve seen this stuff about world government and climate debt and enforcement. They are going to do this to you whether you like it or not.

“But I think it is here, here in your great nation, which I so love and I so admire – it is here that perhaps, at this eleventh hour, at the fifty-ninth minute and fifty-ninth second, you will rise up and you will stop your president from signing that dreadful treaty, that purposeless treaty. For there is no problem with climate and, even if there were, an economic treaty does nothing to help it.”

He later appeared on Fox News with Glenn Beck and had this to say: “This is the conference of the state’s parties to the United Nations framework convention on climate change, which is a hell of a mouthful, I know. But this has been in the planning for two years, ever since the same conference met in Barley. They always meet somewhere nice. This time it’s going to be Copenhagen. And at Barley it was planned. As soon as they had got George Bush out of the way, they would push through a climate treaty which would involve the vast transfer of wealth from the west to poorer countries, in the name of what is called reparations for climate debt. Now, the extraordinary thing about the draft treaty which I have now seen is that it goes far further than anything that was planned at any previous session. What they're now going to do is to set up a world government, and the word 'Government' actually appears in the treaty. But you heard it here first. The words 'Election, democracy, vote, or ballot' do not appear anywhere in the 200 pages of the treaty.

"...There will be a new vast interlocking bureaucratic entity created at huge expense to you and me, and that bureaucratic entity will have three purposes, the first of which is twice stated to be government. The second purpose is stated to be the transfer or redistribution of wealth from countries like ours to third world countries in reparation for what is described in the treaty as climate debt. In other words, we've been burning CO2 in huge quantities. They say that's altering the climate. Actually we now know it isn't, but they say it is. And therefore they say we have to pay, get this, anything up to 2% of GDP every year to poorer countries. Now, the third element in the task of this new government will be what is called enforcement. In other words, the power of the new government to make Democratic countries hand over their cash, whether they like it or not. But more than that, there will be an interlocking series of so-called technical panels which will have the right directly to intervene in the economies and in the environment of individual countries over the heads of their elected governments. So what we are talking about is a fledgling world government, and because it's not elected, it's essentially a communist world government."

Let's read that again: So what we are talking about is a fledgling world government, and because it's not elected, it's essentially a communist world government.

Now, in the book of Daniel, when the prophet Daniel interprets King Nebuchadnezzar's dream, he tells him of four world powers. There were four different times in history that there was a one-world government, and one time in the future when there will be a one-world government as an extension of the last. This last one yet to come is now just around the corner - this will be the Antichrist's kingdom.

These four kingdoms were Babylon (actual Babylon, not to be confused with the metaphorical world system, Babylon), Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome. It is of further interest that the final one-world power should be some kind of extension of Rome because the European Union just elected its first president of all its nations.

All nations globally are surely coming together in these end times, as the Bible foretold. This is not a time to be fearful, but to keep looking up, and to stay close to God. Jesus is coming soon.

BILDERBERGER HERMAN VAN ROMPUY BECOMES FIRST PRESIDENT OF EU

The European Union elected Herman Van Rompuy of Belgium to be its first president. Van Rompuy frequently attends meetings of the Bilderberg Group, a group of world leaders that meets once a year at various places around the world to discuss world politics and banking, and the progress of global government. No media is allowed at these meetings.

He is also a member of the Trilateral Commission and is a firm proponent of world government. According to a recent World Net Daily report, he said, "2009 is the first year of global governance with the establishment of the G20 in the middle of the financial crisis." And regarding the upcoming Copenhagen meeting, he stated, "The climate conference in Copenhagen is another step toward the global management of our planet."

Jerome Corsi of World Net Daily writes, "Van Rompuy is known in Europe for his proposals that in the EU national symbols need to be replaced by European symbols, such that the national flags of the EU member nations would disappear in favor of the EU flag, and the same would happen with license plates, identity cards and even sporting events, as reported by the Telegraph in Great Britain."

Next on the global agenda is the North American Union. Our power hungry Narcissist in Chief Obama may just start out as the president of the NAU. Time will tell. Nations are merging rapidly. We do not know exactly how things will play out, but we know that we are in the very end of the end times, by what we see matching up so perfectly with Bible prophecy.

Tony Blair was overlooked, after many thought he would be the first EU president. But he has a very important role as Envoy to Mideast Peace, and we should continue to hear of him as efforts are stepped up to come to some kind of agreement between the Israelis and Palestinians. Israel is in the news every day, as are the advancements towards global government. The Bible unfolds before our eyes. Keep watching. Keep praying. Keep yourself close to God.

Written by Paula Leanues unless otherwise noted.

The Sackcloth Times / December 2009

Printed by Faith On The Earth

1209 Lexington Pkwy

Ypsilanti, MI 48198

www.faithontheearth.com

© 2009 All rights reserved.

Feel free to make copies and distribute; any quotes or excerpts, or copies of articles in full must be attributed to this publication.