THE FATHER CALLS YOU By Christopher Dart

But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. (Mt. 6.6).

It's good to pray on the move, at prayer meetings, etc. Paul wrote, "Pray without ceasing." (1 Th. 5.17) "And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint." (Lk. 18.1) Here Jesus speaks of prayer with importunity – secret, devoted, fervent prayer.

Oswald Chambers spoke of wrestling before God in prayer. John Bunyan said, "It is so wretched a thing to be without God that one may gladly dare any calamity in venturing to approach him." I would suggest getting up two hours earlier for prayer is a nearly non-existent calamity in comparison to what some saints have endured. Charles Spurgeon said, "Take at once firm hold of God." E. M. Bounds wrote, "Prayer may well be defined as that force which vitalizes and energizes the Word of God, by taking hold of God, Himself." Isaiah wrote: "There is none that stirreth up himself to take hold of Me," as God's sad lament. "Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me," is God's recipe for prayer.

There is a promise in the Counsels of Eternity you will be drawn into the presence of Christ by the Father. You do best by calling on Him right away and establishing a regular relationship with Him. He will draw you, but if you wait, it may be under circumstances you won't like. Leonard Ravenhill said, "It's very simple, either concentrate in prayer or pray in concentration camps."

Revival must be an individual experience. We will each become obedient to His call to get alone with Him in prayer on a regular basis somehow. I believe that revival is slowly spreading throughout this Laodicean Church age with some saints. I believe suffering will be the lot of many in order to get the Church in unity. In other words, the revivals of Fulton and Azusa Streets are a thing of the past. Revival will hit each individual in the Church until its flames are as many logs thrown on the fire. The question is, will we be obedient to the call of God to extricate ourselves from the world and come up to the top of the mount, as Moses, now?

ARTICLE 1 TWO MISTAKES PROPHECY TEACHERS MAKE By Pastor Jackson Morro

As I sit writing this chapter, I glance at my own personal library. I personally own 37 books on eschatology (the end times), 7 study Bibles that have study notes on Revelation, 7 one volume Bible commentaries that have a verse by verse study of Revelation and two specific volumes dealing in depth with Revelation. Needless to say, I have encountered a diversity of interpretations on almost every verse in Revelation. Indeed, devoted students of prophecy, men of good will, often disagree on the unfolding of end time events. I believe that this is, in great part, because of what I call the "Daniel 12:4 Principle": "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end..."

I believe the very nature of apocalyptic, prophetic literature is that it is often veiled and only revealed in its deepest meaning as the time of fulfillment nears and men of mature spiritual discernment seek truth. The Lord Jesus Himself taught the principles of the Kingdom of God in parables, with truth veiled from superficial observation. This same method applies to prophetic literature.

As I study prophecy and as I view our contemporary situation, it has become my opinion that every biblical sign about the coming of Antichrist is fulfilled in the person of Barack Hussein Obama. As I preach and teach this fact and try to warn Christians (and anyone else who will listen), I occasionally run into two objections from some fellow Christians.

How, I am told, can Barack Hussein Obama be THE Antichrist? Certainly, he may be one of the “many antichrists” that the Apostle John warned us about in 1 John 2:18. But how can he be THE Antichrist of Revelation? How can he be the BEAST, the ONE?

These people make two points to back up their objections. First, they ask, “Haven’t we been taught by reputable teachers that the Church of Jesus Christ will be raptured out of this world before Antichrist comes on the scene? Isn’t it true that he is being held back by the Church’s presence in the world and can only come after the Rapture of the Church?” Indeed, there are many teachers, both past and contemporary, who have taught this: Hal Lindsey, Dr. Finis Dake, Grant Jeffrey, John Hagee, Smith Wigglesworth, Charles Stanley, and several others. On the other hand, I believe we must see that there are others such as David Wilkerson of Times Square Church, Pat Robertson of CBN ministry, and David Meyer of the Last Trumpet Ministries, that maintain the Church of Jesus Christ will be present, at the very least, for the initial arriving of the Antichrist.

A second objection raised to my view that Obama is THE Antichrist, is raised when some of my Christian brothers maintain, “I thought the Antichrist was supposed to come from the ‘Revived Roman Empire’?” Therefore, Antichrist must be a European; he could not possibly be American. Again, teachers who maintain this are Hal Lindsey, John Hagee, and more recently, David Jeremiah in his current book, What In The World Is Happening? Interestingly, others such as Dr. Finis Dake and Perry Stone believe the Antichrist will come from Syria because of Daniel 11:35-45. I believe there is some credibility to the fact that Antichrist will have some sort of Syrian heritage, although he does not necessarily come directly from Syria. As I have shown in Chapter 3 of this book, Obama does have some Arabic blood in his line from his biological father whose Kenyan biblical forefather was Cush (Genesis 10:6-14) who begat Nimrod. Nimrod left the land that is now called Kenya, and he established Shinar (Babylon / Iraq) and Nineveh (Syria).

In this chapter, I intend to address these two issues and show from scripture that 1) the Church of Jesus Christ WILL KNOW who Antichrist is, and will be on earth when Antichrist comes. The Church of Jesus Christ will be present for at least the initial stages of the advent of Antichrist and Spirit-filled Christians with mature discernment will know and understand who Antichrist is; 2) scripture does not teach that antichrist must arise as a European from the “Revived Roman Empire” but rather that he WILL ultimately rule the one world government from Rome. Let’s proceed.

The first issue, whether or not the Church of Jesus Christ is still on earth when Antichrist arises to his initial place of power, is, I believe, most directly and clearly addressed by the Apostle Paul in 2 Thessalonians 2:1-10:

1Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

4Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

9Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, 10And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

Apparently, life as a Christian was so dangerous in Thessalonica that some Thessalonians Christians had been upset or shaken in their faith by a teaching or false prophecy that they were suffering so much because they were in the time of God’s wrath and the Rapture or gathering of God’s saints to heaven had already occurred. Thus, they had missed the Rapture (this means Paul too would have missed the Rapture!). Paul, however, clearly in a simple, direct, straightforward way tells them that the Day of Christ, the Coming of our Lord and our gathering to Him, cannot occur until two things happen. First, there must be a great falling away or apostasy from the true faith. We see this today with the proliferation of liberal Christian denominational churches that deny the divinity and bodily resurrection of Jesus and by the massive infiltration of New Age spirits and teachings into the evangelical sector of Christianity. Second, Paul declares, the man of sin, the son of perdition [who comes forth from the Throne of Satan? – JM] is revealed. The Greek word for revealed is apokalupto, or “uncovered,” “made known,” “revealed.” A simple, direct, straightforward reading of this passage shows the Apostle both warning and comforting the Thessalonians with the fact that the man of sin, the son of perdition, Antichrist, will be known by the Church. In fact, those who receive this revelation are duty-bound, really, to proclaim it in their preaching (Ephesians 5:11).

I also believe that a study of the seven seals in Revelation, Chapters 5, 6, 7 and 8 shows that Antichrist arrives with the breaking of the first seal. The rider of the white horse going out conquering and to conquer is Antichrist. He is an earthly counterfeit of the King of kings and Lord of lords. Antichrist at this particular moment (Revelation 6:2) has a bow, but no arrow. He has come on the political scene and is very dynamic and forceful, but he has not yet received his full power and authority as Antichrist. (He will receive that in Revelation 13:1-3.) As we read through the seven seals, the earliest possible moment that the Rapture can occur is after the opening of the sixth seal (Revelation 7:9-17 – even this passage is, at this point, open to honest discussion). The “Come up hither” of Revelation 4:1 cannot honestly be seen as the Rapture of the Church. It must be seen for what it is: John’s personal experience of being lifted to the third heaven to receive revelation, much like the Apostle Paul’s experience (2 Corinthians 12:1-6).

The breaking of the first seal (Revelation 6:1) marks the irreversible, irrevocable beginning of the ministry of Judgment by the Lord Jesus Christ. Antichrist can only arise with the permission of Almighty God and the Lord Jesus Christ, giving the world, which has rejected God and His Christ, the deception they desire. The appearance of Antichrist Barack Hussein Obama has marked the beginning of the Day of Christ (Day of the Lord). Obama, as President of the United States, has a bow (power), but has not yet received his full authority as Antichrist. That will develop as our history unfolds.

What about the second point many prophecy teachers make – that Antichrist must come from Europe or the “Revived Roman Empire”? As I previously mentioned in this chapter, that theory has already been challenged by the late Dr. Dake (in Revelation Revealed) and Perry Stone (Unleashing The Beast).

Again, what does a careful, straightforward reading of the book of Revelation say? We read that the “Beast” (Antichrist) arises out of the sea. We know from Revelation 17:15 that the sea is the symbol for the human race. Clearly, Antichrist could be anyone from the human race. He arises out of the sea. He does not have to arise out of Europe. I personally find it very interesting that Barack Hussein Obama’s “official” birth certificate lists him as being born (arising) in Hawaii, which is in the middle of the Pacific Ocean (the sea).

Antichrist, who thus can come from anywhere, will become a very prominent figure in an international governmental system that will develop into a one-world governmental system. The original system will have seven/eight heads and will develop into a system with ten crowns, or regions of authority within this one system. As my colleague, Paula Leanes, pointed out in our book, What Next?, the current international G-7 (also called G-8), or G-20, might be that very structure, because of the nations included, that would set up a one-world government in a time of severe economic crisis and possible natural disasters such as occur in the sixth seal and the seven trumpets (Revelation 6:12 through Revelation 12).

The passage of Revelation 17:7-13 is often used to prove the Antichrist must be European:

7And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

Seven hills are presumably the seven hills upon which the city of Rome is built. Therefore, Antichrist must somehow come from Rome. But does the scripture say that he will be European? Not necessarily. Remember, Antichrist rises from the sea (the human race). It would be very fitting that a world rocked by economic and natural disasters would look to the city of Rome for new focus. The world of the Book of Revelation will be looking for a new sense of stability, order, and identity. A world seeking, perhaps, to recover from the devastating consequences of a limited nuclear war will look to a center at Rome, a city that would be acceptable to world rulers hoping to establish a new human glory and having it in their heart to support the Beast. The Beast will rule at Rome, but does this mean he will be Roman or even European? He will be from the human race.

Be assured that every time Barack Hussein Obama speaks at the United Nations, or attends an international conference, or goes on a foreign policy trip, he is looking forward to the day when he will be directing the New World Order – from Rome.

ARTICLE 2 OBAMA VS. THE GOOD GUYS By Pastor Jackson Morro

And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

- Daniel 8:25

And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

- Daniel 7:25

And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

- Revelation 13:7

THE Antichrist, the man of sin, the son of perdition, will oppose and exalt himself above all that is called God (2 Thessalonians 2:3-4). As such, it will be his mission to do away with anything and anyone that would stand in the way of his and his father Satan's complete victory and rule over planet earth. Life will become, and already is, the Antichrist versus the "Good Guys." Life is now "Obama versus the Good Guys."

At this point, I must interject one of my own personal experiences in the Holy Spirit. In late spring of 2008, as I was walking into one of our local supermarkets to do some ordinary, everyday shopping, a very clear and distinct voice within me spoke. It was the voice of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit said to me: "This is the way it was before Hitler took over Germany."

I was stunned. Times were quite ordinary. There was a campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination in progress. Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama were in a very tight race. John McCain had already secured the Republican nomination. Nothing in life seemed very out of the ordinary. Why, then, would the Holy Spirit speak such a statement to me?

As current events unfolded, the profound truth of the statement became clearer to me. In October of 2008, I had the sudden revelation that Obama would soundly win the election, that God was angry with the United States and the world and was going to judge it, and that Obama was THE Antichrist. The unfolding of events certainly seems to be confirming these points day by day.

Hopefully, I have shown in Chapter 4 (“Obama and the Throne of Satan”) the direct spiritual link between Adolf Hitler (“an” antichrist) and Barack Obama (“THE” Antichrist). We must never forget that the real connection between Hitler and Obama is the spiritual connection, flowing from the Throne of Satan and empowered by the spirit of Antichrist. Hitler and Obama have the same demonic heritage. Hitler used his demonic power to try to attack and destroy the Jewish people and Judeo-Christian society with his desire to rule the world. Sadly, he even did some things in the name of Christianity, though he was empowered by Satan. Obama, also a false Christian, will broaden his scope and, as THE Antichrist, oppose ALL that is called God. Obama will oppose (and already is opposing) the nation of Israel, the true Church of Jesus Christ (born again and Holy Spirit-filled), and the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. We have entered the time of “Obama versus the Good Guys.”

For Obama to rule the world, he must necessarily eliminate any vital opposition. While doing this, however, he must be crafty and subtle so that he will not increase the numbers of those who will oppose him. Like Hitler, and with Satan (“Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made” – Genesis 3:1), Obama has begun a process which will 1) marginalize, 2) disenfranchise, 3) turn into scapegoats, and 4) imprison or kill those who oppose him. The process will be subtle, but it will be strong and deadly.

Already parts of Antichrist Obama’s agenda are known. The White House press admitted to Fox News that the Obama administration is compiling a list of the email addresses of any individuals who oppose his health care plan. Obama has introduced legislation seeking to empower him to commandeer the internet and shut down any website he considers a threat to national security. In a very Hitler-like move, Obama announced he would address school children nationwide at the beginning of the 2009-10 school year. When a multitude of protests came along with a demand for an advance release of his remarks, it took the Obama administration several days to release an advanced statement (as they scurried to modify Obama’s planned remarks). Not to be ignored also is the slow rise of a cult of worship around Obama. Photographers often show him surrounded by a glow of light (much like the counterfeit glory of King Herod in Acts 12:21-22). School children at an elementary school in New Jersey sang a hymn of praise to Obama as though he were a god. Even a community based action group in Chicago held a prayer service with a “Catholic-like” litany of prayer requests, each followed by the chant, “Deliver us, Obama.” None of these things is lost or ignored by Antichrist Obama, who as President of the U.S., is one of the most highly informed persons who is constantly fed information, especially about what is said about him.

Antichrist Obama has indeed targeted three “Good Guys” and has begun his process to 1) marginalize them – or create the image that these people are on the fringe of normalcy and should not be taken seriously; 2) disenfranchise them – or take steps to actually deny them any power in day to day society; 3) turn them into scapegoats – or blame them as being ultimately responsible for the problems of the day, be they economic, social, health or otherwise; and 4) imprison or execute them – the ultimate goal – “get rid of them.” The Roman Emperor Nero used this process against the Christians in the 60’s AD; Hitler used it against the Jews in the 1930’s and 40’s. Antichrist Obama has begun to use it against 1) Israel and the Jews; 2) born again, Spirit-filled Christians; and 3) the Lord Jesus Christ.

1) THE FIRST “GOOD GUY” ANTICHRIST OBAMA HAS SET OUT TO DESTROY IS THE NATION OF ISRAEL, NOW LED BY BENJAMIN NETANYAHU. The nation of Israel has always been a prime target of Satan because the Lord Jesus Christ, who totally vanquished Satan, came through the nation of Israel. Also, if Satan can prevent any biblical statement about, or promise to, Israel coming to pass, he will have succeeded in making null and void the infallible Word of God, the Bible.

Obama is now in the process of marginalizing Israel and Netanyahu. Obama has traveled to many foreign nations, including several Muslim nations. As of October 2009, he has yet to visit Israel, a very important nation in the current world scenario.

In June 2009, Obama had a picture released of him talking on the phone with Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu. In the photo, Obama’s feet are on the presidential desk with the soles of his shoes facing the camera. To show the soles of your shoes to someone while you are speaking to them is one of the highest insults in Muslim culture. The picture was highly praised in the world Muslim press. Again, Obama was marginalizing Israel and Netanyahu. Also, in a September 2009 speech at the U.N., Obama drew hearty applause when he stated the U.S. does not accept as legitimate any new Jewish settlements and construction in the West Bank of Israel.

It will be extremely difficult for Obama to disenfranchise Israel. They are a strong nation with hundreds of nuclear weapons. They are led by a strong leader, Netanyahu who is God's man for this hour to protect the nation of Israel. (The name "Benjamin" means "son of the right hand" and "Netanyahu" means "given by Yahweh.") Netanyahu is about the only person of any authority who is willing to "play hard ball" with Obama. Netanyahu will respond to any pressure, political or economic, by Obama, with a threat to attack and obliterate Iran and its nuclear program. Netanyahu has his nation solidly behind him. In an August 2009 poll in the Jerusalem Post, 96% of Israelis did not trust Obama; only 4% felt he could be trusted in negotiations.

Instead, Obama will turn to craft and "statesmanship." A strong ally, soon to appear on the horizon, will be Tony Blair of England, the EU and Quartet, and most importantly, special envoy to the Middle East. Together, Obama and Blair will united as "friends of Israel" and friends of "world peace" and will engineer a treaty so favorable to Israel that Netanyahu and his nation will be put in a position where they must accept it.

Antichrist Obama's ultimate attempt to eliminate the "good guy" Israel will be a violation of the treaty and an attack on Israel. Unfortunately, for Antichrist and the world which follows him, this will trigger Armageddon (World War III), the return of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the destruction of Antichrist.

2) THE SECOND "GOOD GUY" ANTICHRIST OBAMA HAS SET OUT TO DESTROY IS THE TRUE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST MADE UP OF TRULY BORN-AGAIN CHRISTIANS AND TRULY SPIRIT-FILLED BELIEVERS. Obama has already begun his subtle work of marginalizing true Christians. He has already taken what appears to be a "jab" at Christians in His inaugural address of January 20, 2009 when he stated, "On this day, we come to proclaim an end to the petty grievances and false promises, the recriminations and worn out dogmas, that for far too long have strangled our politics."

Obama has further attempted to marginalize the true Church of Jesus Christ by currying favor with theologically liberal "Christians" or by those who are willing to compromise and not confront Obama with the Word of God. Men like Rick Warren, T.D. Jakes, and Joel Osteen are very popular but also they all speak highly of Obama. Obama has given public notice to them. This is Obama's message, that compromisers are the true Christians rather than the ones who would confront him with the truth of God's Word.

Perhaps the most dangerous step taken, to date, by Obama to marginalize and disenfranchise truly born-again, truly Spirit-filled Christians is the little-noticed Homeland Security Report issued by Janet Napolitano which stated that the greatest threat to homeland security comes from "right wing extremist groups" – people who oppose Obama's social and political philosophy, and who believe in end time prophecies. This report also encourages people to report any "right wing extremists" to state and local Homeland Security centers so a file can be compiled. (Notice there is no mention of the threat of Muslim terrorists in this report.) Obama now has at his disposal a government report which would allow him, in a time of crisis, real or concocted, to round up and imprison real Christians. It will be very easy for Obama, in a time of "crisis," to arrest, imprison, and eventually execute true Christians as those who threaten security because they perpetrate "hate crimes" and oppose the new world order and peace and stability it offers.

The Napolitano report, however, is only the beginning of Obama's attack on the true Church. There will be other steps he will take, all of them very subtle, crafty, and little-noticed until the moment he puts them into effect. He will be helped tremendously by the "spirit of antichrist" that I explained in Chapter Two. This spirit of antichrist will lead others whose hearts belong to Satan to prepare the groundwork for Obama to act. There will be increasing speech against true Christianity, increasing legislation against biblical truth, and increasing "tests" of loyalty to Obama. The ultimate "loyalty test" to Obama will be the mark of the Beast which any true Christian alive at the time will recognize and reject outright.

Unfortunately for Antichrist Obama, God “will not be asleep” during his persecution. The true “remnant” Church will be empowered with a strong anointing of the Holy Spirit. Two particular men, whom Revelation 11:3 calls God’s two witnesses, will be raised up with powerful anointing similar to Moses and Elijah. They will be able to oppose the Antichrist and be a source of frustration to him and his followers because of their God-given authority in preaching and their power to perform miracles. They will be unstoppable until their work is finished and God allows them to be martyred. Antichrist’s “apparent victory” over the witnesses, however, mark the sounding of the seventh (and last) trumpet which will release the seven bowls of wrath on earth, destroying population, environment, the world system, and leading to Armageddon.

3) THE THIRD “GOOD GUY” OBAMA SETS OUT TO DESTROY IS THE LORD JESUS CHRIST HIMSELF. By my use of the term “good guy,” I in no way intend to demean or belittle the exalted stature of King Jesus. I merely want to portray that the Lord is with Israel and with the true Church. He is with us.

Since Barack Obama accepted Satan’s offer to worship him in return for receiving all that Satan has in his earthly realm, the world system, Obama’s real competition is Jesus Christ Himself. The Son of God is ruler of the Kingdom of God; the son of Satan is ruler of the world system. The two cannot coexist. There is no room for compromise on either side. It is ultimately Jesus versus Obama, and Obama versus Jesus. Obama knows this. Thus, Obama has embarked upon his plan to marginalize, disenfranchise, scapegoat and imprison and destroy the Lord Jesus Christ.

The biggest lie of the Obama administration to date is every time that he states, “I am a Christian.” He never speaks of Jesus; he has never given (to my knowledge) a public testimony of his conversion. He used “Christianity” and “Jesus Christ” to curry favor and get the vote of Christians with poor discernment.

Obama has tried to marginalize Jesus Christ by making Him one voice among many other “equals.” While maintaining he is a “Christian,” he has set himself against everything that would confirm that he is. He belittled the Bible during his campaign stating and supposedly showing how we cannot live by the Bible because it is unrealistic and impractical. The Bible contains the words of Jesus Christ. When giving a speech at Georgetown University in Washington, DC, in April 2009, he had the secret service cover up the insignia “IHS” which symbolizes the name of Jesus Christ. He has already “set himself up in the temple of God” by falsely proclaiming he is a Christian, but I believe that he will also enter a rebuilt temple in Jerusalem in the future and proclaim himself to be God. Every form of adulation has, is, and will feed his ego. The cult of worship around him, the Nobel Peace prize, the adulation of the masses and liberal intellectuals all feed “the pride of life” (1 John 2:16), the same sin that caused the downfall of Satan.

Becoming more important than Jesus Christ will become a manic obsession with Obama, especially as God empowers the true remnant Church with a very powerful anointing to oppose him.

Unfortunately for Antichrist Obama, he will have that chance to personally battle Jesus Christ, King of kings and Lord of lords, at Armageddon. Jesus Christ, the only One who can stop the Antichrist, will personally cast him into the Lake of Fire (Revelation 19:20).

In closing this chapter, I am reminded of the story of a little boy who asked his pastor at Bible study class, “Pastor, can you explain the Book of Revelation to use in a way that’s easy to understand? It’s so complicated and scary.” The pastor took a deep breath, quietly prayed for the Lord’s help, and said, “The Book of Revelation tells us about a time when a lot of bad things happen on this earth, and there are a lot of symbols that we don’t fully understand. But Jesus promises us that He will be with us and protect us, so we don’t even have to fear. And in the end, THE BAD GUYS LOSE, AND THE GOOD GUYS WIN.”

THE HEALING PROVISION By Nancy Williams

The floor was open for questions or comments at the end of the Sunday morning service. Our pastor had been teaching from Mark 11. In that passage, the disciples of Jesus had been astonished that the fig tree Jesus had spoken to earlier had dried up. When Peter exclaimed, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered away," Jesus took the opportunity to teach them.

So Jesus answered and said to them, "Have faith in God. For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them." (Mark 11:22-24)

I had to ask: "What does this mean? How do I know if I am 'having faith in God'? Is this something we muster up from within ourselves? Is it something that is supposed to be resident within us 24/7? How can I have faith that Infinite God will be there for puny, finite me when I speak to a mountain?"

I had been longing for a more intimate and victorious walk with the Lord and desired a deeper understanding of faith. I had listened to preachers on television and radio and read the writings of other ministers of the gospel. I had studied the Scriptures and asked questions. I had prayed, asking the Father for the Spirit of wisdom and revelation that I may know Him better (Ephesians 1:17).

Through the answer that my pastor gave that Sunday morning, God quickened my heart in what may be the most profound revelation that I have ever experienced. I can sincerely say that it changed my life. My understanding was opened instantly. The walls of ignorant doubt came tumbling down, doubt that had hindered my faith for victory in my own life, as well as for my ability to intercede in faith-filled prayers for others.

My pastor stated that faith in God is based on three things:

- 1) Who God is—His personal character,
- 2) What God says—the Holy Bible, and
- 3) What Jesus did on the cross.

It was so simple and so profound! Mountain-moving faith rests solidly on the foundational tenets of Christianity: God's immutability (eternal changelessness), the inspired and inerrant Word of God, and Jesus' sacrificial death and resurrection. Those things are true, they don't waver, they are trustworthy, and I can stand in great faith on them no matter how I feel. (See Numbers 23:19; Hebrews 13:8; James 1:17.)

REVELATION BRINGS CORRECTION

Suddenly, in the twinkling of an eye, God revealed to me that my faith had more often than not been based on where I thought I stood with God at any given moment. On a subconscious level, I expected the strength of my faith and the power of my prayers to be governed by my current state of perceived righteousness—my right standing with God. If I had spent enough time in His Word or prayed enough, i.e., if I had been "good," God would move on my behalf. If I had failed somewhere, God probably would not even listen to me.

What a revelation God had given me of myself! I repented in sorrowful tears as we were served the elements of communion and reaffirmed that my righteousness is as filthy rags before God and that I stand wholly in the righteousness of Christ.

Many people who love God with all of their hearts are unaware that they are trying to earn God's favor, and even their salvation, through their good works and by "being good." Human flesh will always come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). That is the very reason we need a Savior.

Let me offer a cautionary caveat. Even though we stand in the righteousness of Christ, we are not standing in a cheap grace; Jesus gave His life to pay our sin penalty. In no way are we ever given license to practice willful sin. As with a child, our maturity and behavior determine how much power and authority we can be trusted with. I believe as the Church grows in obedience and holiness, we will see great signs and wonders following her.

THE SPIRIT OF FAITH

The revelation God gave me that day in church opened my understanding about many things. I learned about the three foundations upon which our faith in God can rest securely without wavering. I began to comprehend the fullness of the supernatural life in Christ that is promised to believers through faith. The Word of God came alive.

For months after that, I knew that something had happened that had changed me, but I didn't know how to explain it to others until some time later when I heard another minister teach on the "spirit of faith" from 2 Corinthians 4:13. The spirit of faith causes one to say, "I believe; therefore I speak." Does that sound familiar? It should. It's the same way we are born again.

Think about Romans 10:8-10 (NKJV): "But what does it say? 'The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart' (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." The spirit of faith is about believing with your heart and confessing with your mouth—the very same way we received salvation!

Faith works by believing with the heart and confessing with the mouth. Do you need to be saved (born again)? Do you need a healing? Do you believe in your heart what God says about it? Remember, He is trustworthy, and His Word is true. If you believe it, then speak it; confess your belief, and thank God for it.

Speaking your faith aloud is like drawing a line in the sand; when you step over it, you are committed. The natural mind is fearful of making that kind of commitment to faith. I know the mind dialog well: "What if it doesn't happen; you will look like a fool sticking your neck out like that." I wonder if that's what the Bible calls being "stiff-necked." You cannot hold the neck rigid and stick it out in faith at the same time. (I hope you are laughing.)

At those times when you fear drawing that line of faith and stepping over it, test yourself to see if you have fear of embarrassment, or doubt that God means what He says. The caveat here is that we must know the Word of God and whether what we are believing for is in the will of God. An example of this is healing. We know that healing is God's will because His Word says that by the stripes of Jesus, you were healed. Be careful about trying to exercise faith for things such as stopping rain because you are having a cookout; there may be farmers praying for the rains to come to water their crops so that you will have corn on the cob at your next cookout. You can, however, stand in faith against adverse winds. Use wisdom. Additionally, sometimes the Holy Spirit gives us a check to hold off, wait, or sometimes to go in a different direction. The best Scripture directive is Galatians 5:16: "Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh."

THE CROSS OF JESUS CHRIST

Jesus accomplished many things on the cross. We will examine only a couple here.

The Atonement Provision

Jesus took upon Himself the judgment for the sins of humanity. He shed His blood and gave His life to pay the penalty for them all—past, present, and future—when we repent and accept Him as our Savior. On that cross hangs a sign, "Paid In Full!" The law was satisfied.

At the moment of His death, the thick veil that hung in the temple and separated the people from the presence of God was rent from top to bottom. The rending from the top down showed that the hand of man was not involved. God Himself opened the way of access to His holiness and His presence through Christ. Prior to this, only once per year and under the strictest conditions was the high priest permitted to enter the Holy of Holies with the blood of atonement. Jesus paid the penalty once for all. Man could be redeemed to God.

What God accomplished through Jesus' sacrificial death does not stop there. In Christ's suffering and death, He accomplished much more than atonement for the sins of man.

Jesus said in John 10 that He is the "door" to the sheepfold. Only through Jesus, the Door, will those who have believed come in to the sheepfold and go on in to find pasture.

"Then Jesus said to them again, 'Most assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. All who ever came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep.’ “ (John 10:7-11)

The atonement—the sacrificial death of the sinless Lamb of God on the cross—paid for our sin penalty once for all and, thus, our entry into the sheepfold, but Jesus never intended for us to take up residence in the gate. Have you ever seen a herd of sheep? They will all congregate right in front of the gate, not going on in themselves and preventing others from going in. No wonder God likens us to sheep.

The Good Shepherd leads us into green pastures. That’s abundant life! There lies beyond the door of salvation a kingdom that is filled with promise and provision when we understand and press on into it.

Matthew 11:12 (AMP) tells of this pressing in. And from the days of John the Baptist until the present time, the kingdom of heaven has endured violent assault, and violent men seize it by force [as a precious prize—a share in the heavenly kingdom is sought with most ardent zeal and intense exertion].

I am convinced that most of the violent struggle is simply getting past the doubt and unbelief of the teachers and the sheep who have congregated at the gate. Luke 11:52 (AMP) addresses this: “Woe to you experts in the [Mosaic] law, because you have taken away the key to knowledge. You yourselves have not entered, and you have hindered those who were entering.”

Jesus has already paid for our entrance into His abundant Kingdom. I am reminded of my trips to Six Flags and Epcot Center. When we walked up to the ticket counter and got our ticket, everything inside that gate was open and available for our enjoyment. We were limited only by our own choices.

The Suffering Provision

Christ suffered in His body a suffering that was not necessary in providing atonement. He suffered in order to bear our griefs and to carry our sorrows. He suffered for our peace and for our healing. He suffered for our abundance.

Isaiah 53:4-5 (AMP) says, “Surely He has borne our griefs (sicknesses, weaknesses, and distresses) and carried our sorrows and pains [of punishment], yet we [ignorantly] considered Him stricken, smitten, and afflicted by God [as if with leprosy]. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our guilt and iniquities; the chastisement [needful to obtain] peace and well-being for us was upon Him, and with the stripes [that wounded] Him we are healed and made whole.”

First Peter 2:24 (AMP) says, “By His wounds you have been healed.” Notice that this Scripture is past tense. The work is complete. It is finished!

The Hebrew words for “griefs” and “sorrows” specifically mean physical affliction (or sicknesses and pains). “He was wounded for our transgressions” means He was pierced for our rebellion and trespasses. “He was bruised for our (guilt and) iniquities” means He was crushed for our “evil nature” and crooked behavior. “We are healed by His stripes” means the blows from the whips that cut into His flesh bought our healing and made us whole.

Man’s greatest need was atonement for sin in order to escape from judgment and to have reconciliation with God, and God provided that by Jesus’ death. Jesus did not need to suffer to provide the sin atonement.

By His suffering, God provided for abundant life, beginning today (John 10:10). That means healing, and more. Neither work of the cross is automatically appropriated. Each—a soul’s eternal salvation or a person’s physical healing, peace, and well-being—must be received by faith. Christ’s work on the cross makes each possible. Simple faith receives each as we choose. God has already done His part. The Way has been bought, paid in full, and presented to “whosoever will.” It is now up to each individual to receive it by faith, including appropriating healing.

APPROPRIATING GOD’S PROVISIONS

People get mad at God when their loved ones get sick or tragic accidents happen. They get even madder at Him when He seemingly doesn’t answer their pleading prayers that He intervene and heal.

But the fault does not lie in God. Satan is the destroyer, and our lack of knowledge makes us impotent against him. "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." (Hosea 4:6) The knowledge that is needed here is that God has already done everything that is needed. It is now ours to receive it by faith. The ball is in our court.

We need to know the Bible! The Holy Bible—the inspired Word of God—is our life manual. It is the only source of wisdom and knowledge about spiritual truths. 2 Timothy 2:15: "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." Rightly dividing God's Word comes through diligent study and refusing to suit its words to one's own convenience or ideology. Rightly dividing the Word of truth mean to rightly discern its truth by capturing the spirit of the Word. The Word of God was written by inspiration of the Holy Spirit and must be understood by the Holy Spirit. Personally, I study many different translations until I feel comfortable that I understand what the Spirit is communicating.

Jesus says in Luke 14:27 and 33: "And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. So likewise, whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple." Discipleship means renunciation of all selfish interest for the sake of Jesus. Most people do not want that level of commitment, but then they wonder why they are powerless when tragedy strikes.

We know that God desired for all to come to repentance and faith in Jesus' atoning work on the cross (John 3:16). But the choice of salvation is left to the free will of each individual. In the same way, we know it is God's will to heal everyone who calls on His name because Jesus suffered for it. We appropriate God's provision by faith. Faith gives substance to things we hope for; faith gives evidence to things not seen (Hebrews 11:1). God has given us the measure of faith, which is enough. As we grow in knowledge and understanding of God's promises in His Word, our faith grows, line upon line, precept upon precept.

This is what I personally have learned that has changed my life, and it can change yours as well. I am fully persuaded that God is faithful and true and cannot lie and that His Word is inerrant truth. I am fully persuaded that God loves me (and you) and that He wants and has made provision for His children to have abundant life in this world and eternal life in the world to come. I am fully persuaded that God provided the atonement for my sins once for all and that I am forgiven of all past, present, and future sins when I come to Christ in godly sorrow and repentance. I am fully persuaded that God provided for my health and healing by suffering from the stripes He bore on His back on the cross. I am fully persuaded that I receive all of it by simple faith in God—faith in His righteous character, faith in His Word, and faith in what Jesus accomplished on the cross. But we can't stop there. We must put feet on our faith.

We all are saved, or born from above, by believing and confessing with our mouth. Romans 10:9-10 says, "...that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

That Scripture sets the pattern for appropriating God's promises and provisions. The principle is established at the very beginning of our life in Christ. Just as salvation is appropriated by heart belief and spoken confession, so His continuing work in our lives is advanced by the same means.

In Mark 11:20-21, the disciples were surprised to see the fig tree had withered that Jesus had previously cursed. Jesus responded with a simple command in verse 22, "Have faith in God."

Then in verses 23-24, in calling them to "speak to mountains," He led them to prepare for situations in which they would find it necessary to take direct authority in the spiritual realm to impact things in the natural realm. "For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them."

A mountain is symbolic of an obstacle, hindrance, or insurmountable problem. Someone said that a mountain is anything that is bigger than you are. Jesus said, "Have faith in God." To have faith in God is to believe.

The next thing He said is, "I say to you, whoever says to this mountain ..." That's spoken confession. And then He says, "Don't doubt in your heart!" The doubt Jesus was talking about may be a lack of faith in God to do what He says, which is insulting to God's character, but it could also be doubt in one's own worthiness to ask. Well, we all are unworthy. That is why we need a Savior Who IS worthy! Jesus died for our unworthiness so that we could live in His. When we command that mountain to be removed and to be cast into the sea, God sees only the worthiness of Jesus. A. W. Tozer once wrote: "Nobody ever got anything from God on the grounds that he deserved it. Having fallen, man deserves only punishment and death. So if God answers prayer it's because God is good. From His goodness, His lovingkindness, His good-natured benevolence, God does it! That's the source of everything."

ABOUT AUTHORITY

"The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds" (2 Corinthians 10:4 NIV). We are not to fight in the natural, physical world because that is Satan's territory. Our warfare is fought in the spiritual realm, using spiritual weapons, such as believing God (faith) and speaking in agreement with His will and His Word. That is why it is so important to "study to show ourselves approved unto God, a workman who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15). We must know God's Word thoroughly. Not knowing the Word of God is like going to war not knowing how to use our weapon. Our enemy can take that same weapon and do great damage with his lies. A good portion of our lives should be given to studying God's "instruction manual."

Jesus reminded His disciples in Mark 11:23-24 of the principles of believing and confessing—believing in their heart and confessing with their mouth. He was preparing them for situations when it would be necessary to take authority in the spiritual realm in order to impact things in the natural realm. This is so important for us to learn.

Jesus said in Matthew 28:18 that all authority has been given to Him in heaven and on earth. Authority is defined as, "the power or right to rule, control, judge, or prohibit the actions of others." Just as an Ambassador is sent out with the authority of his country behind him (as well as the provisions needed, which is another sermon), we as Christ's ambassadors on the earth are sent out in the name of Jesus (who has all authority) with all of the rights and privileges of a diplomatic minister or an authorized representative or messenger. We call it The Great Commission. We need to understand that it is not presumptuous to move in spiritual authority in the name of Jesus. It is not only our right, but it is our responsibility. God's first command to man was to "fill the earth and subdue it." We cannot subdue a thing without using authority.

Matthew 28:16-20 (AMP): "Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed and made appointment with them ... Jesus approached and, breaking the silence, said to them, 'All authority (all power of rule) in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Go then and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe everything that I have commanded you, and behold, I am with you all the days (perpetually, uniformly, and on every occasion), to the [very] close and consummation of the age.' "

God wants us to take direct authority in the spiritual realm in order to impact, or change, things in the natural realm. Jesus gave us the right to believe what God says (His Word) and to speak that Word into our circumstances.

When sickness is attacking our bodies, as believers and disciples of Jesus Christ, we have the right to speak truth from our spirit (the spiritual realm) and to command our body (the natural realm) to come into line with the Word. We have the right to command (in the spiritual realm) our body (in the natural realm) to resist sickness and disease or any other mountain that would try to attack it. Sickness and disease are interlopers on the body of any born-again Christian. Unless a door has been opened to them, they have no spiritual right to be there. Under the authority of the name of Jesus, you have the right to speak to the mountain of sickness and to command it to be cast into the sea.

You may say, "But I have been guilty of abusing my body and, therefore, opening the door to sickness." Remember that Jesus died for our sins—past, present and future. He died even for that sin. In Christ, we are forgiven. When we confess our sin and repent (turn from it), we have the right to have healing. Sometimes, the door to sickness and disease has been opened through a curse. Curses can come in two primary ways—a malevolent charge against a person, such as in witchcraft, and the speaking of negative words, either from oneself, a parent, clergy, or others who have influence over us. In the case of curses, deliverance may be needed before healing can be fully manifested.

Sometimes there may be a need to fast in order to subdue the flesh, to starve doubt, to humble self, to promote faith-filled prayer, and/or to repent for losing faith. Let each one judge himself.

Although there have been times when God has used people's sicknesses to bring glory to Himself when they were healed, I believe without a doubt that it is not God's will for anyone to be sick, and it is especially not God's will for His children to die prematurely. That's the devil's agenda and his attack. As believers, we have the right and the power, in the name of Jesus, to stop the attack.

I have given you the Word in a capsule. Also consider this: One can put a thousand to flight, but two can put ten thousand to flight. When we come together with another faith-filled believer in agreement with God's Word and will, no devil on earth can stand.

Be careful of your words. Life and death are in the power of the tongue. We must be aware of every idle word we speak and ask ourselves whether we are agreeing with God, the flesh, or the devil. Are our words producing life or death? We must try to always guard our words so that Satan does not get a foothold anywhere.

We also need to stay in a right attitude of humility as the creature and not the Creator. 2 Corinthians 4:7 NIV reminds us: "But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us." These rights are given to us by God's grace and mercy. God is not our online shopping network. We need to be careful not to become prideful in our faith. That's why it is so important for us to stay in a posture of worship; it reminds us who we are and Who we are not. Denying the flesh through fasting helps to bring us into humility.

It is vital also to remember that God gives to us from His abundance so that we might generously give to others, both from our resources and our hope. We can never give back to God what He has given to us, but out of love, we are to go and reach others.

God bless you is my prayer, and may the spirit of faith inhabit your heart continually!

Email with subject line: The Real Problem

No big surprise that the world is moving toward a one world government, and that evil is good, and good is evil, and that evil will get worse and worse. When I first heard about the grace of Jesus and asked Him to save me in the 60's, I happened to notice a line that caught my attention back then. If the Holy Spirit were taken from the earth, most churches would not even notice it. They would continue services as if He were still there. We are in that day. The manifest presence of the Lord is gone. The gifts of the Spirit are so rare as to be missing altogether. No one considers this and asks why. They keep on carrying on as if nothing has changed.

Is there any man, any preacher, anyone, anywhere who is preaching Revelation chapter three?

How blind we are; naked and wretched. Judgment starts at the household of God.

Our greatest need is to get rid of false expectations that we have in the Lord. One of the deepest ingrained expectations is that God won't allow this or that to happen to us. An Arab Christian man saw his 12 year old daughter raped and her neck slashed right in front of his eyes. A Muslim spit in his face, "Where is your Jesus now?" God allowed this. Think about that. God allowed it. The man had to work through this, but he never stopped reading the Word. Eventually God brought him to the place of forgiving those who did this evil. God put His servant through a fire most of us couldn't survive, here in America. This man now has a singular ministry to Muslims and God is very much with him.

Yes, God may allow the unacceptable, but if we maintain our trust in our God He will bring us out into a place we could never arrive without that unacceptable thing. May God give us grace to survive. This is easier said than done, but only by our abiding in Jesus is this possible. Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit says the Lord.

Lord, help us to be men and women of faith in You. Help us not to faint. Encourage us, Lord. Help us. And as always, we walk by faith in your Word which contains abundant promises. Fear thou not for I am with thee. Be not dismayed for I am thy God. I will strengthen thee; yes I will help thee; yes I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Who are you who fear the Lord and obey the voice of His servant, who walk in darkness, and have no light? Let him trust in the name of the Lord and rely upon His God. For even the darkness is light to you oh Lord. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. He has said, I will never leave thee nor forsake thee. Let us go outside the camp where Jesus is, bearing His reproach. Help us Lord to be worthy of You. Yes you will help us. You are our helper. In You alone oh Jesus is our salvation. We are so unworthy.

MY PRESENCE WILL NOT BE TAKEN LIGHTLY
By Christopher Dart

Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. (De. 5.11)

The name of the LORD is representative of all He is. Without Jesus having been on the cross, becoming sin for us, the best experience we could have of God's existence would be academic knowledge of His name, which He commanded to be kept holy.

Now, after the cross, after Pentecost, we have the presence of the Holy Ghost. The command is still the same. We, however, realize His presence is, indeed, represented by His name. His presence is not to be taken in vain.

We are called to be taken into His presence. Jesus said, no man cometh unto me, except the Father draw Him. Psalm 65.4: Blessed is the man whom Thou chooseth and causeth to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts. Having been with Him is the only way the World will hear our message because His Truth cannot be revealed in the flesh. It must be revealed by His Holy Ghost which dwells in His holy temple. Our bodies are His temple. Our flesh resists the Spirit. The only way His Spirit can be recognized is from intimate fellowship with Him.

His Word to us: "My presence will not be taken lightly." We are to become less like the world, that is, transfigured into His likeness from glory to glory, as by the Holy Ghost. Our lives are to be a living sacrifice, not a blemished offering half devoted to the world and half devoted to Him, an impossibility, yet ever attempted among us.

Our call, as with Moses, is to come near. And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off. And Moses alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him. (Ex. 24. 1,2)

You have been chosen. You are called to come near, to be shut in with God, to shut out the world. It takes time, determination and effort, as Moses had to ascend the mount, giving no concern for time, food and water.

As the presence of the LORD was obvious on Moses, afterwards, so the presence of the Lord will be obvious on us. Beloved, this is up to each of us individually, not for us to expect the pastor and music minister to have it. Tragically, a blemished sacrifice and strange fire before the Lord seems to be all we get anymore.

We come casually into the place designated as His House of Worship. Conversation is seldom of the Lord but of all things other than our Lord. We choose, in our flesh who we like and dislike. Are we not the temple of the Living God? How can it be that we ignore some, disdain others and love whom we will? It seems the presence of the Lord is not considered or will be considered at 10:00 o'clock, maybe 10:01. I'm pleading with you, beloved, let not our entry to His House be casual. Almighty God will meet with us but we must expect Him to be there and not grieve His Holy Spirit.

Lev. 24. 2: "Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually."

By entering into the presence of the Lord daily, we obtain oil (the presence of the Holy Ghost) to tend the lamp (the evidence of the Holy Ghost in the church). Jesus gave us the example: "And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed." (Mk. 1.35) Luke indicated rising early and departing to a solitary place was His manner. We ought not think we can do what Jesus would not. He received His power for ministry from the Father by departing to a solitary place. Jesus said, "I do nothing but that which the Father giveth me." As temples of the Holy Ghost, we should present nothing in the church, to one another and to the world but that which the Father gives us. By entering the presence of the Lord, we receive that which the Father will give us.

EXCERPTS FROM THE LAST TRUMPET NEWSLETTER
NOVEMBER 2009
By Pastor David J. Meyer

The following are excerpts from the November 2009 LAST TRUMPET newsletter by Last Trumpet Ministries, PO Box 806, Beaver Dam, WI 53916; website: www.lasttrumpetministries.org

The Scripture tells us in I Timothy 6:10, "For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows." At a glance, we can see that the economy of the United States is a complete wreck, and the rise in stock market averages does nothing for the countless unemployed people. Everything is global and international now. The national debt continues to rise to astronomical levels, and the U.S. Senate is now being forced to raise the national debt ceiling above twelve trillion dollars ($12,000,000,000,000). We know that light travels at approximately 186,000 miles per second, and at that fantastic rate of speed, light would travel a linear distance of six trillion miles, the measure of a light year. Our national debt is twice that number in dollars. Our economy has reached a point of no return, and Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Shalom Bernanke knows this is true. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which is already strapped because of the many bank failures, is reporting that additional bank failures could cost 100 billion dollars. Remember, these dollars do not evaporate; someone gets them, and it is always those at the top of corporate conspiracy that come out ahead. The middle class is rapidly disappearing in America, and Obama is getting ready to finish it off. The current situation was caused by bank failures and crashes over the housing market. Next will come a major crash regarding commercial properties and businesses; then will come the big crash of banks over unpaid credit card debt. There are three great fiscal woes, and two are yet to come.

On October 3rd, 2009, Federal regulators closed down several more banks in Michigan, Colorado, and Minnesota; bringing the number so far this year to ninety-eight. The signs of financial ruin are everywhere, and the people who are walking the desolate streets of America are near to the point of open revolt. When the G-20 Summit convened in Pittsburgh in late September 2009, they found massive numbers of angry people and mobs of revolutionaries worked up into a fever pitch. They were trying to make their voice known to the convention of crooks that are running the governments of twenty nations, including the United States. Then, something happened that had never happened before on American soil. American forces used aggressive acoustic weapons on American people. These weapons had previously been used only in Iraq and other foreign war zones. These weapons delivered an ear-piercing sound exceeding 150 decibels, which is louder than a jet engine. It is accompanied by stern voice commands that penetrate the mind. Very soon, what I have been saying for years will be proven true; that is, the greatest enemy of any people is its own government! History has verified this repeatedly!

On October 8th, 2009, the Associated Press featured a story about police officers randomly stopping and frisking people on the streets of our American cities. They call the program "stop and frisk" and have stopped more than one million people in various cities for absolutely no reason! It could happen to you anytime the police get a notion to frisk you!

On October 6th, 2009, various OPEC nations announced that they were going to ditch the U.S. dollar. Immediately, the price of gold jumped to $1,038.65 per ounce, which was a record high. On October 12th, 2009, Bloomberg News Service published a story stating that the U.S. dollar had reached a breaking point because central banks were snubbing the dollar and replacing it with euros and yen. What is happening in the erstwhile great nation of America? Why has so much wealth flowed from America and into Red China? Economically, the Red Chinese have already taken over our country. Is it any wonder that the Red Chinese flag was raised over Washington, D.C., in September 2009? This was done in our nation's Capital to commemorate the anniversary of the communist takeover of China by Chairman Mao sixty years ago. What gives Secretary of State Hillary Clinton the right to offer the Red Chinese your property and mine as collateral against the debt owed by America to China? Here let it also be noted that on September 30th, 2009, the massive Empire State Building in New York City was lighted for three nights in the colors of red and yellow in honor of the communist Chinese revolution! Do these Chinese Reds deserve any honor at all? In an article printed over a year ago in the St Petersburg Times, the nation of Red China is facing an unusual dilemma. For many years they murdered so many baby girls in favor of a stronger male population that now the ratio is 30 men for every one woman. The article goes on to say that the Red Chinese male work force is full of lustful men because of the shortage. Now their eyes are on America!

Will the U.S. dollar collapse? On October 6th, 2009, the United Nations called for a new reserve currency to replace the dollar. The Obama Administration has printed so much more money that the existing supply is worth continually less. It is a weak, thinned out, and watered down economy. Furthermore, existing goods and services will quickly absorb the excess money supply and inflation will rise to record levels. It is quite obvious that all of this is being done intentionally to bring forth new one-world electronic money. This will be the Beast system as mentioned in Revelation, chapter 13. According to the London Daily Telegraph on October 2nd, 2009, the World Bank will run out of money within twelve months. We are that close to the end.

The signs of the times are everywhere. Many people have noticed that stores of every kind have been greatly cutting back on inventory because they just don't have the money to buy much. A prime example of the severity of the problem is the large fleet of empty cargo ships anchored just east of Singapore. It is called the Ghost Fleet, as reported with a full series of photographs by the London Daily Mail on September 28th, 2009. "It is the biggest and most secretive gathering of ships in maritime history. It is larger than the British and U.S. navies combined but have no crew, no cargo, and no destination." I have no doubt that our U.S. money is cursed in many ways. It is interesting to note that a recent test conducted by a group of scientists involving U.S. currency from thirty American cities found that ninety percent of all bills contain traces of cocaine.

Final Signs and Warnings!

At the very end of September through the beginning of October, just after the G-20 Economic Summit, disasters began to happen all over the world. In Sydney, Australia, a severe dust storm filled the sky and blanketed the city with an ominous red dust, described as deadly red by the London Daily Mail. In California, massive wildfires broke out and turned the sky bright orange and red. The San Gabriel Mountains were on fire, charring 3,500 acres. Then the earthquakes began to shake the earth. According to the U.S. Geological Survey, there have been 454 significant earthquakes of magnitude 4 and above within the past 30 days as of October 14th, 2009. Many of these were strong quakes. I have been watching the earthquake maps and statistics for twenty-eight years, and I have never seen this many before in such a short time. On October 1st, 2009, Indonesia was hit with a magnitude 7.6

quake, which caused widespread devastation and left thousands of people dead or missing. At that same time, two more powerful quakes of magnitudes 7.6 and 6.6 struck near Samoa, sending a tsunami across the region, which left widespread destruction and thousands dead or missing. The very creation is crying out against sinful man.

In early October, a strange, unique, and unexplainable halo appeared over Moscow, Russia. It glimmered with bright light and was captured on video. Nothing like it had ever been seen before. It was massive and appeared to be some sort of doorway or portal filled with brilliant brightness. We must remember that the Lord Jesus told us to watch for the many signs that would appear just before His return to bring Judgment Day upon this wicked world. We must all watch and pray, for the time is at hand!

TWO SHORTS:
FEAR AND AWE AND PRAYER IN TROUBLED TIMES
By Pastor David Wilkerson

FEAR AND AWE

The prophets warn us that when we see God shaking the nations, and perilous times befall us, our natural man will fear greatly. Ezekiel asked, "Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee?" (Ezekiel 22:14).

When God warned Noah of his coming judgments and told him to build an ark, Noah was "moved with fear." (Hebrews 11:7) Even bold, courageous David said, "My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments." (Psalm 119:120) And when the prophet Habakkuk saw disastrous days ahead, he cried out, "When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble." (Habakkuk 3:16)

Please note as you read these passages: The fear that came upon these godly men wasn't a fleshly fear, but a reverential awe of the Lord. These saints weren't afraid of the enemy of their souls but they did fear God's righteous judgments. And that's because they understood the awesome power behind the approaching calamities. They didn't fear the outcome of the storm, but rather God's holiness!

Likewise, each of us will experience overwhelming fear in the coming times of destruction and disaster. But our fear must come from a holy reverence for the Lord, and never from a fleshly anxiety about our fate. God despises all sinful fear in us, the fear of losing material things, wealth, our standard of living.

All over the world, people are filled with this kind of fear, as they see their nations' economies deteriorating. They're afraid an economic flood will sweep away everything they've labored for throughout their lifetime. Such is the cry of unbelievers who have no hope. It ought not to be the cry of the godly. Indeed, if you're a child of God, your heavenly father will not endure such unbelief in you. Isaiah warned: "Who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; and forgettest the Lord thy maker- and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor" (Isaiah 51:12-13). "Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread [awe]." (8:13)

Let God be your fear and awe. That kind of fear leads not to death, but to life!

PRAYER IN TROUBLED TIMES

In perilous time like these, is the church powerless to do anything? Are we to sit and wait for Christ to return? Or, are we called to take drastic action of some kind? When all around us the world is trembling, with men's hearts failing them for fear, are we called to take up spiritual weapons and do battle with the adversary?

The prophet Joel saw a similar day approaching Israel, one of “thick darkness and gloom.” According to Joel, the day of darkness that was approaching Israel would be one such as never seen in their history. The prophet cried, “Alas for the day! For the day of the Lord is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.” (Joel 1:15)

What was Joel’s counsel to Israel in that dark hour? He brought this word: “Therefore saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping and with mourning: and rend your heart and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him?” (Joel 2:12-14)

As I read this passage, I am most struck by two words: “Even now.” As gross darkness fell over Israel, God appealed to his people: “Even now, at the hour of my vengeance” when you’ve pushed me out of your society, when mercy seems impossible, when humankind has mocked my warnings, when fear and gloom are covering the land “even now, I urge you to come back to me. I am slow to anger, and I have been known to hold back my judgments for a season, as I did for Josiah. My people can pray and petition for my mercy. But the world won’t repent if you say there is no mercy.”

Do you see God’s message to us in this? As his people, we can plead in prayer and he will hear us. We can make requests of him and know he will answer the sincere, effectual, fervent prayers of his saints.
